Vice President's subsequent DIAG Conference with Governors

Kabul- May 8, 2007 – On Wednesday, 9 May, H.E. Second Vice President Ahmad Karim Khalili will chair the second DIAG conference with nine governors from across Afghanistan on the implementation of DIAG at the district level.

Also in attendance will be the Minister of Mol, Deputy Ministers of MoD, MoLSA, MoIC, MRRD, as well as Director of NDS, National Security Advisor, and members of the International Community.

Nineteen districts have already begun DIAG activity in preparation for the upcoming DIAG campaign. Upon conclusion of the conference, the governors will return to their provinces to begin acting on the Vice President's orders.

This campaign is only one part of President Karzai's DIAG Action Plan which was signed on 17 February 2007.

Once districts achieve DIAG compliance, development projects will begin. DIAG has implemented a canal cleaning project in Mahmood Raqi district of Kapisa and is in the final project preparations for a veterinary clinic in Kohistan-II district of Kapisa and a micro hydro-electric project in Farkhar district of Takhar.
